

II International Seminar on Law, Politics and Literature: frontiers of the human, frontiers of democracy

SCHEDULE:

1) Democracy and cartographies of the inhuman: America, Amazon, Bees.

Barbara Szaniecki (UERJ) and João Meirelles (Instituto Peabiru/ Pará)

September 6th, Monday, at 18pm

2) Forest Literatures

Lúcia Sá (The University of Manchester) and Cécile Roudeau (University of Paris VII - Denis Diderot)

Respondent: Leticia Paes (Birkbeck, University of London)

September 8th, Wednesday, at 10am

3) The Judicialization of Indigenous Territories in Brazil.

Samara Pataxó (lawyer, PhD student in Law – UNB)

Respondent: Laila Sandroni (ESALQ/USP)

September 13th, Monday, at 18pm.

4) French Ideology and Italian Theory.

Paulo Arantes (USP)

Respondents: Giuseppe Cocco (UFRJ) and Bruno Cava (Universidade Nômade)

September 20th, Monday, at 18pm.

5) Researching the impact of Citizen-Collected Evidence in environmental litigation: the U.S. Formosa Case.

Anna Berti Suman (Tilburg Institute for Law, Technology, and Society)

Respondents: Motahareh Fathisalout-Bollon (Savoy Mont Blanc University) and Lícia Damous (lawyer, Paris Nanterre University)

September 23rd, Thursday, at 18pm.

6) Bifurcations: constituent movements in Ecuador and Chile.

Carolina Viola (Pontificia Universidad Católica del Ecuador) and Salvador Schavelzon (UNIFESP)

September 27th, Monday, at 18pm.

7) Towards an ethics of the otherness

José Ricardo Ferreira Cunha (UERJ)

October 4th, Monday, at 18pm.

8) Perception Dilemmas: Artificial Intelligence and Machines of Vision
Giuseppe Cocco (UFRJ) and Eduardo Mariutti (Unicamp)
Coordination: Horácio Pizzolante (PUC-Rio)
October 11th, Monday, at 18pm.

9) Platforms and perspectivism
José Antonio Magalhães (PUC-Rio)
October 18th, Monday, at 18pm.

10) Cannibal Semiotics
Ricardo Machado (UFRGS)
October 25th, Monday, at 18pm.

11) Revenge as savage justice: a reading of Medea, by Eurípides.
Maria Conceição Monteiro (UERJ)
Respondent: Júlio França (UERJ)
November 8th, Monday, at 18pm.

*By filling out the form, you will receive in the informed email the permanent link to the event's tables.