

Course aim is to provide basic knowledge on various topics regarding the use of renewable energy sources, energy transport and storage, and socio-economic aspects related to the development of energy communities in remote mountain territories.

Programme in presence:

- Lectures
- Project activities
- 2 days field trip to isolated villages in the Cerna Valley
- Visits to Renewable Energy plants
- Social activities
- Connection with industries and territories

Participants profile: Master students.

Multidisciplinary approach:

• Technical profile (physics, chemistry, engineering, biology, geology, agronomy) and

• Social-economic profile (sociology, politics, psychology, law, economics)

Language: English

Accommodation in student campus
 (2 persons in a room; free of charge)

No costs for the field trip

Contact:

daniel.vizman@e-uvt.ro

nicoleta.stefu@e-uvt.ro